Possessive Adjectives
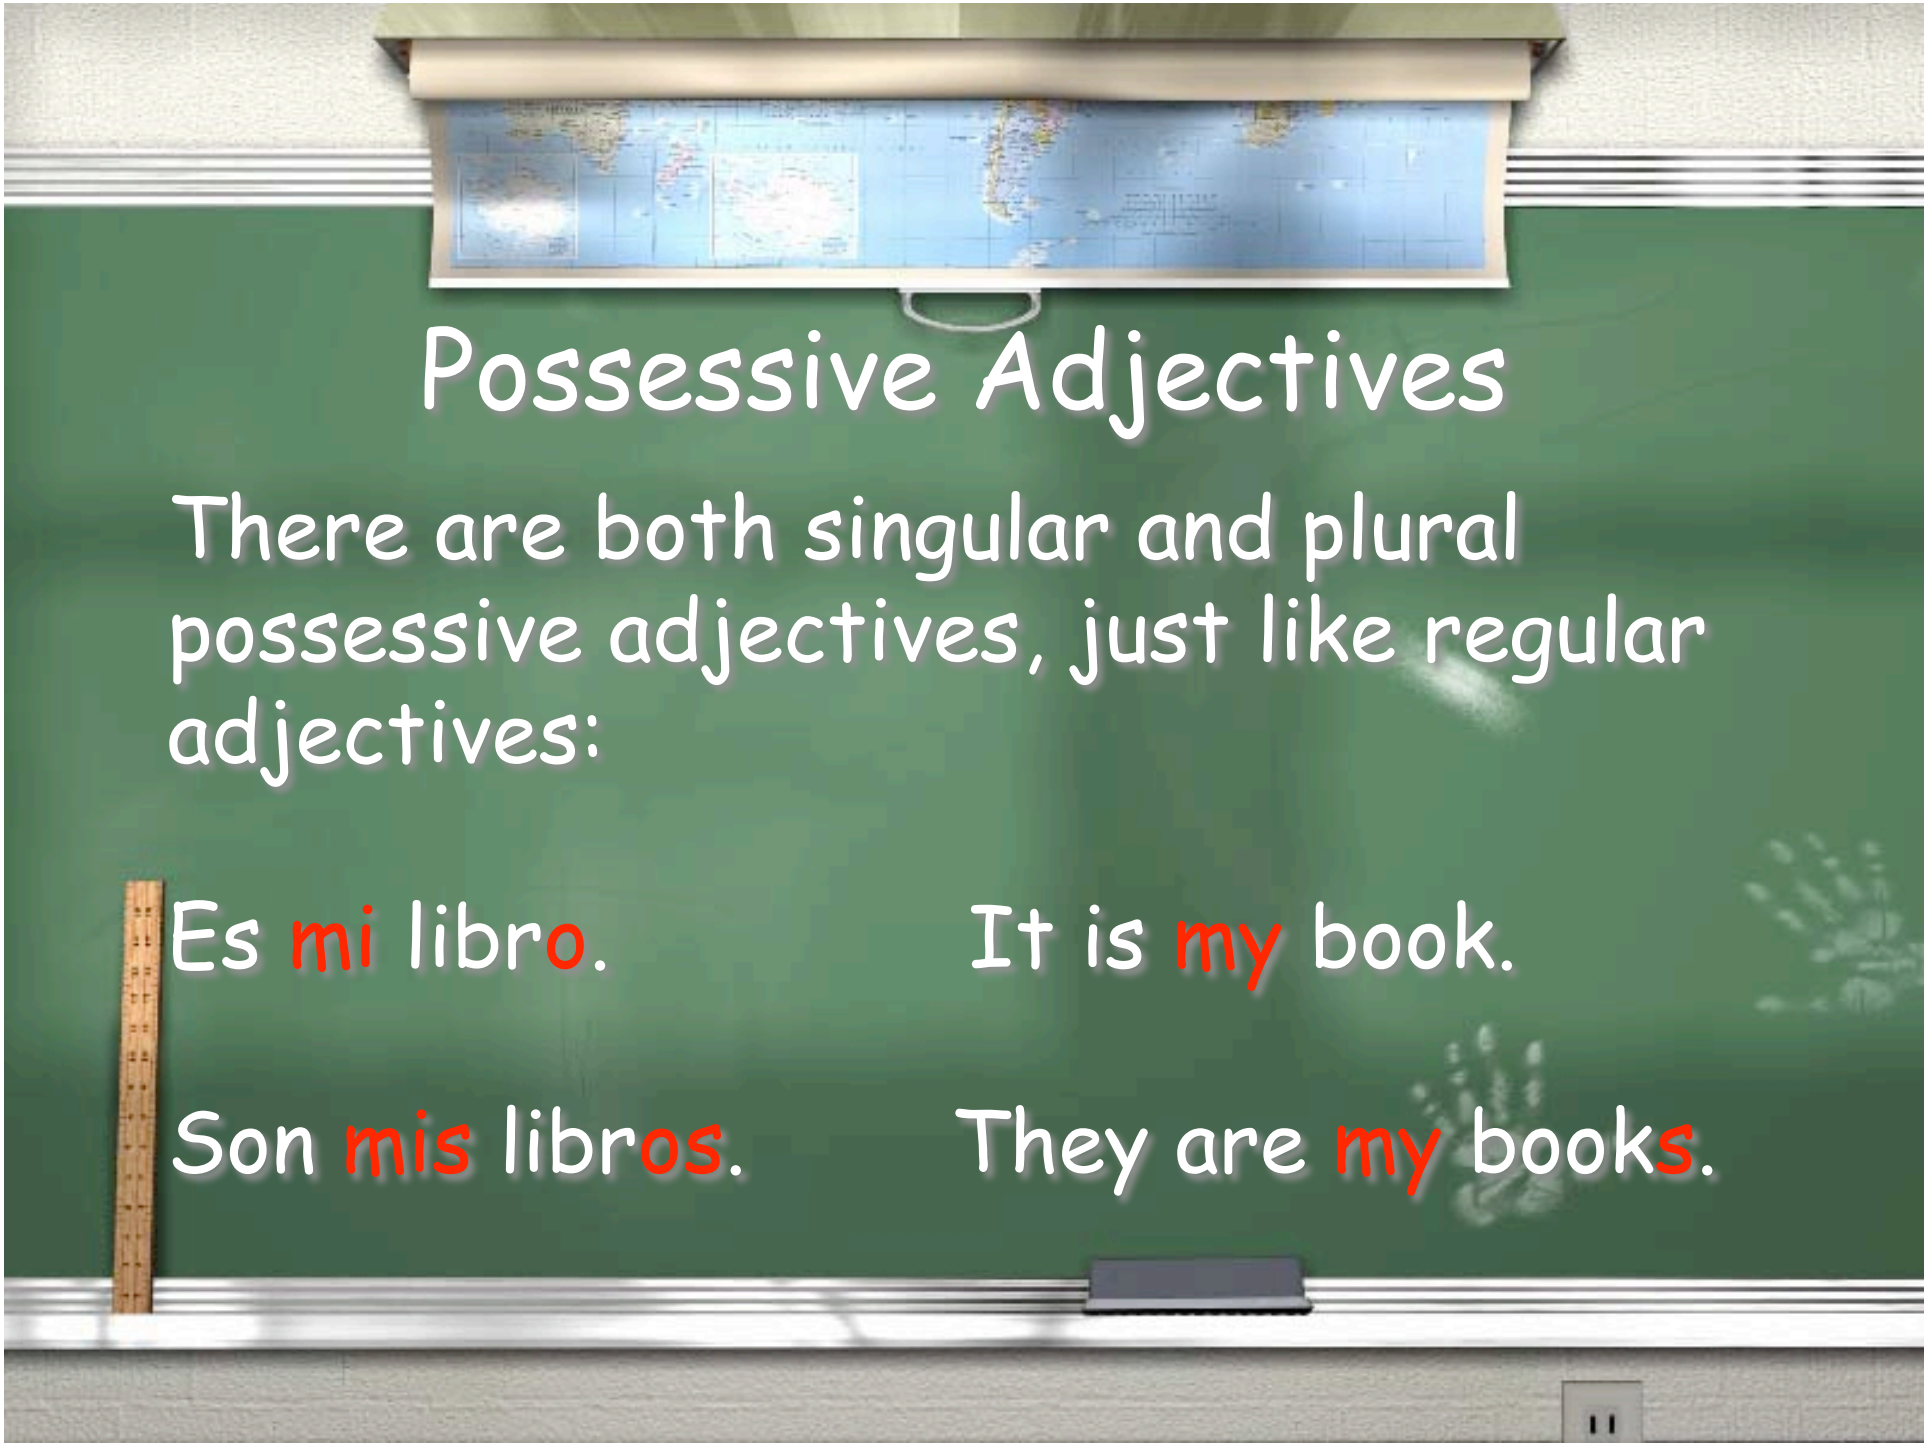
Possessive adjectives tell you who owns something or describes a relationship between two people or things.
In Spanish, possessive adjectives agree in number with the nouns they describe.
Remember that the possessive adjective refers to the person(s) or thing(s) being possessed, not the possessor.



Possessive Adjectives
There are both singular and plural possessive adjectives, just like regular adjectives:
Es mi libro.
It is my book.
Son mis libros.
They are my books.

Singular Possessive Adjectives

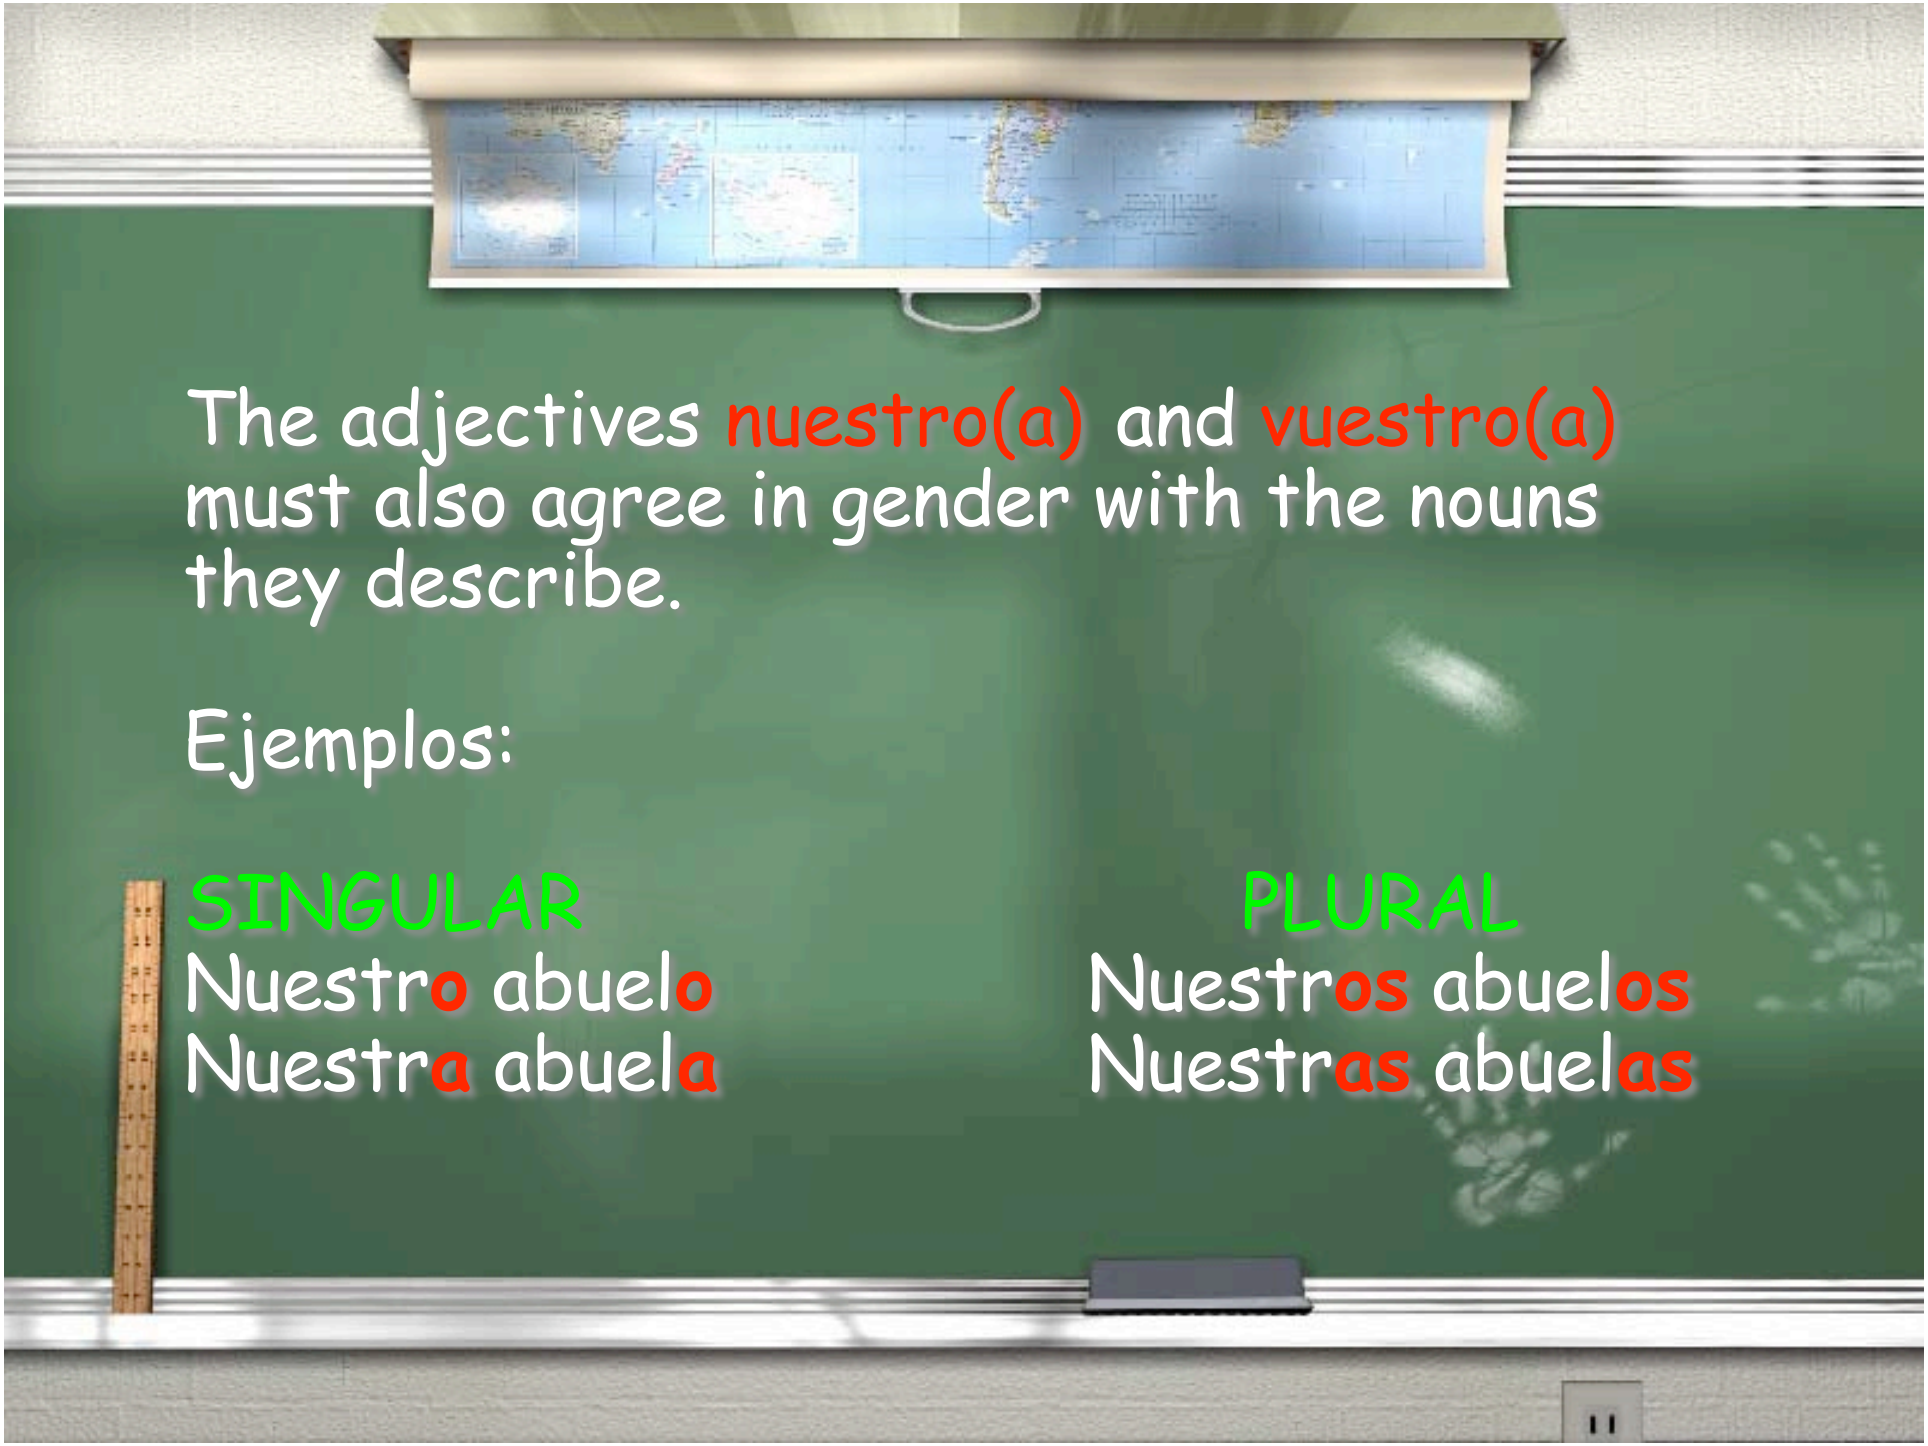
(describe singular things that people/things possess)

Mi my	Nuestro (a) our
Tu your	Vuestro (a) y'all
Su his/her/it's/your	Su their/all of your

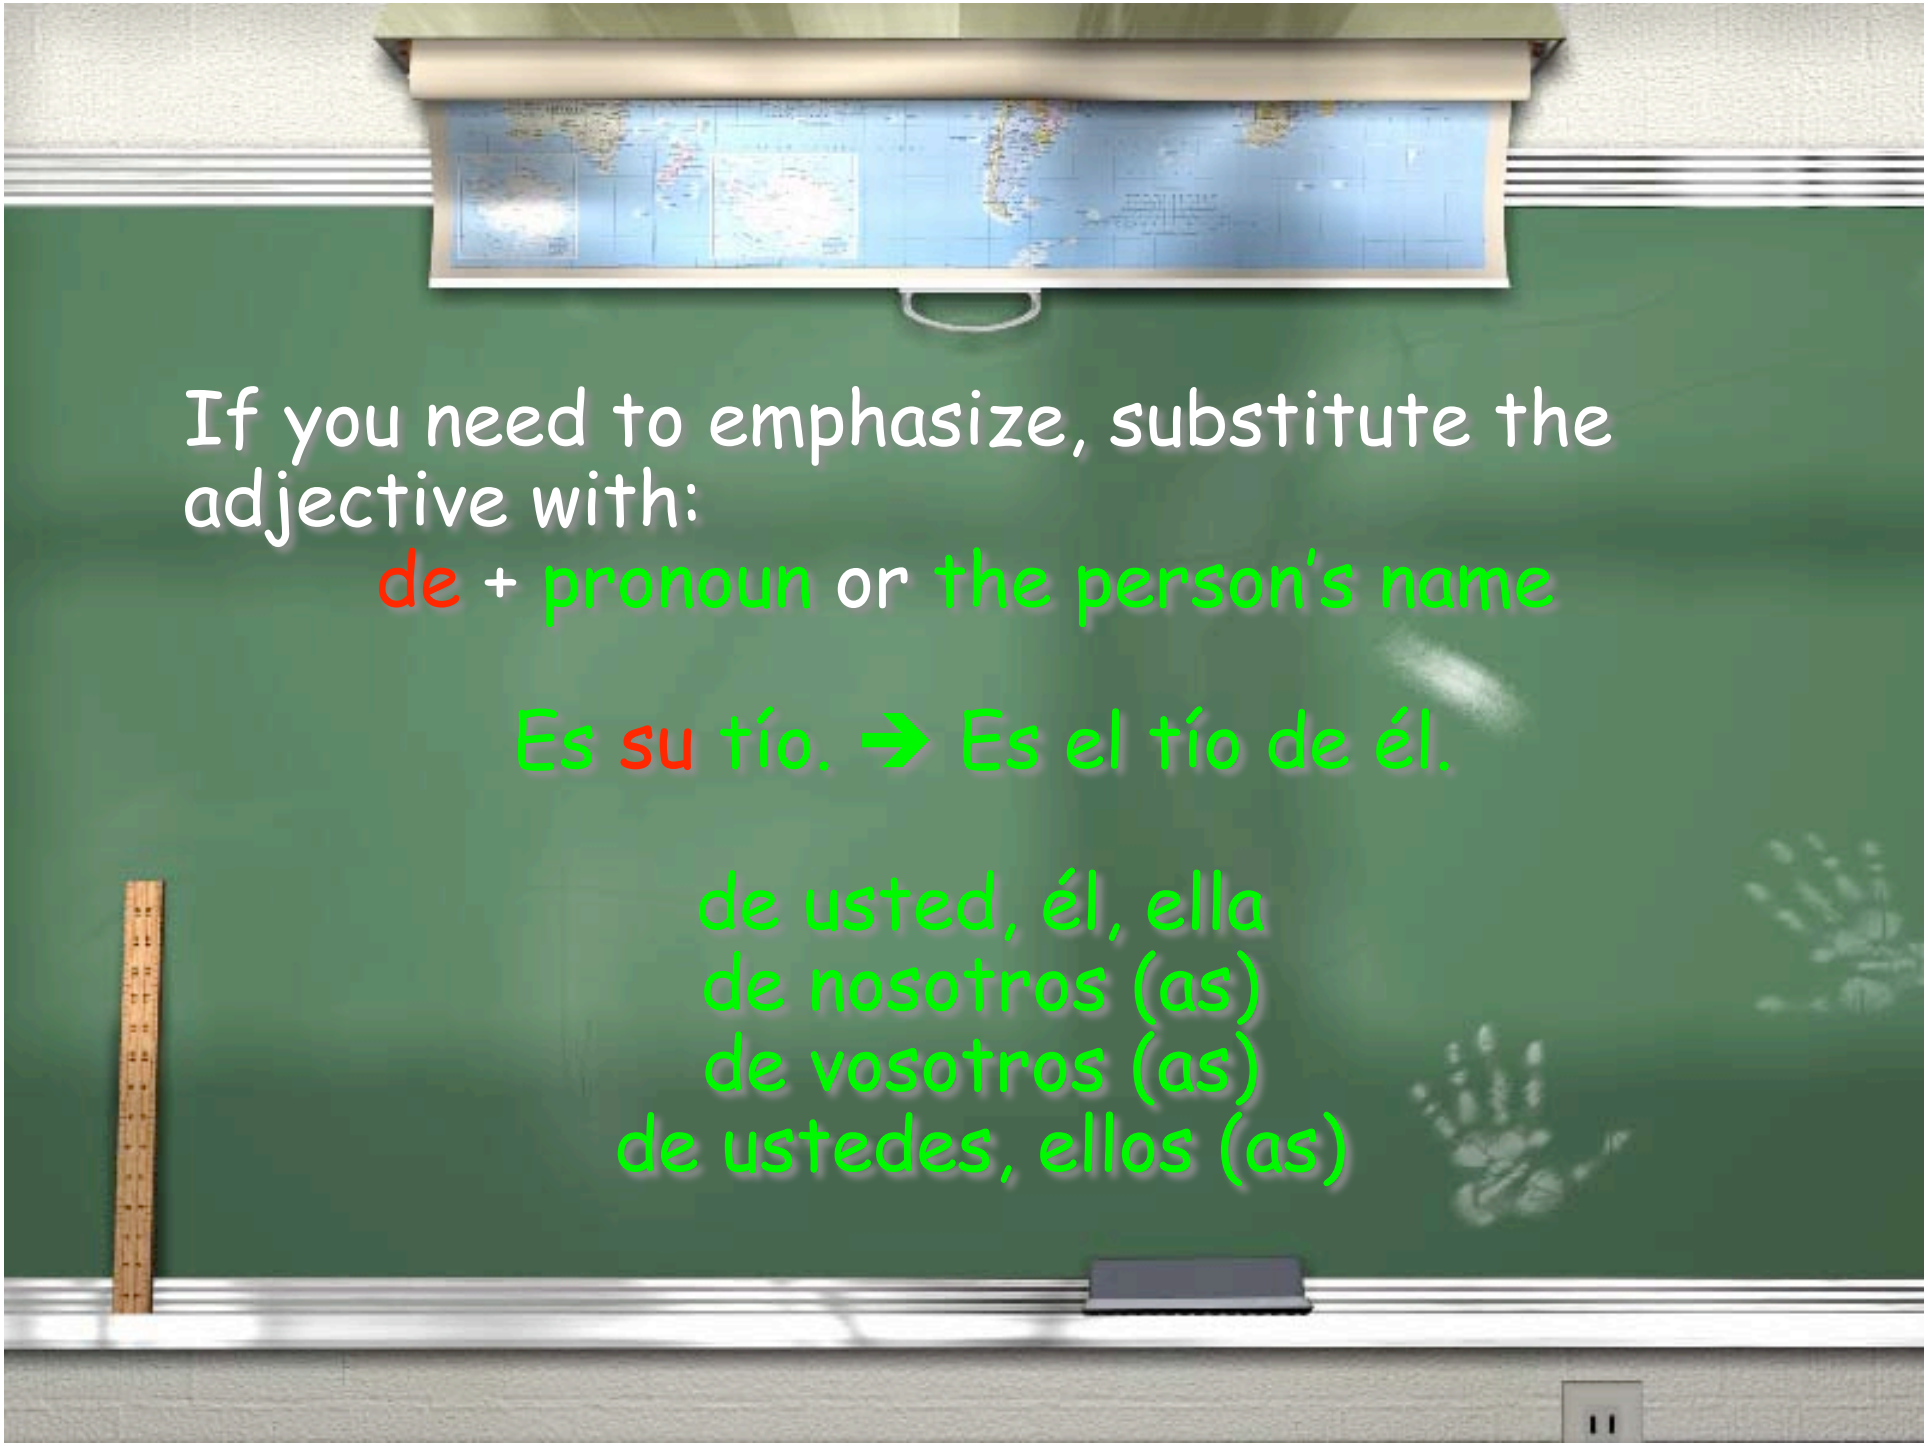
Plural Possessive Adjectives

(describe plural things that people/things possess)

Mis my	Nuestros (as) our
Tus your	Vuestro (as) y'all's
Sus his/her/it's/your	Sus their/all of yours



The adjectives nuestro(a) and vuestro(a) must also agree in gender with the nouns they describe.
Ejemplos:
SINGULAR
Nuestro abuelo
Nuestra abuela
PLURAL
Nuestros abuelos
Nuestras abuelas



If you need to emphasize, substitute the adjective with:
de + pronoun or the person's name
Es su tío. ➔ Es el tío de él.
de usted, él, ella
de nosotros (as) de vosotros (as) de ustedes, ellos (as)
