

Saying what someone likes to do using “Gustar + Infinitive”

---

Unidad 3 Etapa 1

Pg. 187

You learned in Unidad 1 Etapa 1 how to say what somebody likes to do using:

1. me gusta	4. nos gusta
2. te gusta	5. os gusta
3. le gusta	6. les gusta

Now, when you want to emphasize or specifically identify the person/thing/animal that likes to do something, use:

noun

Personal “a” + name + me, te, le, nos, os, les, gusta + infinitive
pronoun verb

These are the pronouns that follow the personal “a”:

1. a mí → me gusta correr.	4. a nosotros(as) → nos gusta patinar.
2. a ti → te gusta bailar.	5. a vosotros(as) → os gusta ir de compras.
3. a él, ella, usted → le gusta leer.	6. a ellos(as), ustedes → les gusta ir al cine.

To express that somebody likes a person, place or thing (noun) use:

me/te/le/nos/os/les gusta + singular noun

Me gusta el muchacho alto, moreno y guapo.

I like the tall, dark, handsome guy.

me/te/le/nos/os/les gustan + plural noun

A ti te gustan las chicas pelirroja.

You like girls with short hair.
